THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

By Gallaway, Hampton & Co.] MEMPHIS, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1867. [Volume Nine—Number 216

THE DAILY AVALANCHE

Earl Mayo succeeds Lord Monck as Governor General of the Dominion of Canada.

The Democratic State Convention of Wisconsin met at Madison yesterday.

In Maine as far as heard from the Democratic gain is 14,000.

Collector Colicott of Brooklyn, implicated in the recent whisky swindle, was arrested on Monday night and released on giving bail in $30,000.

The Kentucky State fair will commence, near Louisville, on the 17th instant. A magnificent exhibition is anticipated.

General Steadman assures the President that he is not a candidate for the War office, and urges him to retain McCullough in the Cabinet.

The propriety and legality of removing the infamous Holt was discussed during a Cabinet meeting on Tuesday last.

By the annexation of [illegible] gains 30,000 more of population, and becomes the fourth city in the Union, instead of the sixth, as formerly. She is now next in population to Brooklyn.

The difference between Turkish and American civility, as developed by the treatment of the American commander of Crete, has been brought to the notice of the Turkish Minister by Mr. Seward.

General Pope did not prescribe the qualifications of members to the Constitutional Convention, in his proclamation ordering the election. The Montgomery Advertiser states that he holds that any person is eligible to a seat who is qualified to register and vote.

Myers, who was one of the Radical candidates for Mayor of Nashville, did not meet his death at Louisville through foul means, as is alleged by his political friends; but by excessive indulgence in "eye-openers," which inspired him with the belief that his head was proof against the most stubborn pavements.

Serious trouble is said to exist in a prominent National Bank of Washington: that it can't pay fifty cents on the dollar, and great efforts are making to suppress the facts. The stock of the bank is quoted at much above par, and its dividends for two years have been made on borrowed money.

A letter has been received at Washington from Thomas W. Ward, late Collector of Customs at Corpus Christi, Texas, in which he says that the town has lost by yellow fever, this summer, one-twelfth of the inhabitants. All the officers of the customs have been down with the dreaded scourge, and every doctor and apothecary in the place have died. The town looks like a city of the dead.

Letters from Havana say that the revolution in Porto Rico is formidable; that the soldiers were joining the people; that the artillery had left their quarters in the capital and gone into the country; that the Captain General, Mascheze, hid himself or fled; and that the revolutionists had sent a steamer to New York to telegraph General Prim, asking him to place himself at their head.

The Pan Angelican Council of Protestant Episcopal bishops, which is to be held at Lambeth, England, during the present month, it is announced, will be attended by eighty bishops, from all parts of the world. At the special request of the archbishop of Canterbury, an American Bishop is to preach the inauguration sermon of the council, and for this purpose, Bishop Whitehouse, of Illinois, has been selected.

In consideration of the youth of the parties, General Ord has modified the sentence of Abel Wall and Harvey Bates. The first to one year's imprisonment and the latter is discharged in full, from the Arkansas penitentiary. He has also commuted the sentence of Captain Frank Ewing to one month's imprisonment in the guard house, instead of three months at Dry Tortugas.

General Banks had an interview with the President on the 10th, and left for home the same evening. His presence in Washington was requested by Secretary Seward, who desired to confer with him, on matters relating to our foreign affairs, as Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Relations. The interview with the President was on the same subject, so far as can be learned.

A Washington special to the St. Louis Democrat, of the 11th, says: "The President stated to one of his friends last Friday, that he had telegraphed to General McClellan to come and take the position of Secretary of War, and that Reverdy Johnson would shortly be Secretary of State. Upon being asked what he was going to do with Black, he replied that Black would be kept in reserve, for use in case Stanberry failed to perform his duty properly."

A special to the New York Tribune says the Russian Ambassador at Constantinople has presented to the Porte another note of his Government, which demands the cession of Crete to Greece, and the full equality of the Christians and Mahometans in all the provinces of Turkey. The demand is declared to be the ultimatum of Russia, and an answer is asked within ten days. In diplomatic circles war is regarded as almost inevitable.

At Lexington, on the 10th, there were two races. The first race was the Ashland stake, mile heats, for three year olds; fifty dollars entrance, play or pay, the Association to add $100, and closed with six entries, four starting. The race was won in two straight heats by Clay's Plantagenet. Time, 1:47½, 1:48½. The second race was mile heats, free for all ages; purse two hundred dollars, with eight entries, all the horses starting. The race was won easily by Nutter's horse, Counterproof, in two straight heats. Time, 1:47½, 1:46.

A spiritual lecturer at St. Louis recently declared that Judas Iscariot was equally with the Saviour entitled to honor for our salvation, because without the betrayal there would have been no crucifixion. He was followed by an elderly female of the same persuasion, who said: "If I were to-day to choose between which I would have, another devil or another Christ, I would say, give me another devil, because he gives out justice; but when we seek salvation on the merits of another, it is despicable."

Butler, the "Beast," who has been in Washington several days, proclaims that he believes the purposes of Mr. Johnson, as indicated by his acts within the past month, are revolutionary and intended to defy Congress, that Mr. Johnson must be impeached at an early day of the approaching session of Congress. Butler construes the amnesty proclamation as intended especially to nullify section seven of the last amendatory reconstruction act, which provides that no person shall be registered or vote by reason of the Executive pardon or amnesty. He says the proclamation itself lays the foundation for impeachment. So says a Washington special to the New Orleans Times of the 11th instant.

Two hundred and thirty-four patents will be issued for the week ending the 17th. Five hundred and sixty applications and eighty caveats were filed in the patent office in the same time.

The fever is raging at Fort Jefferson and Dry Tortugas. The steamer Alliance has been sent to Key West, for doctors and nurses, by order of Major Andrews, District commander, who has left the Tortugas. On the 6th, the Government telegraphed to send physicians. Some say it is yellow fever, others state it is break bone fever. The post doctors are all down sick.

Mayor Ballentine, of Pulaski, arrived in Nashville on the tenth instant, bearing a petition numerously signed by the most respectable citizens of Pulaski and Giles county, asking the removal of the State militia stationed there. It is alleged that the militia are constantly engaged in stirring up ill feeling, and are an injury to the community rather than a protection. An interview was held with General Duncan, commander of the post, no the same afternoon, the result of which has not yet been made known.

A telegram from Farmville to Richmond, dated the 30th, reports a fight that morning between some soldiers of the 21st United States troops and the town negroes. The soldiers had beaten a colored man for refusing to sell them liquor the night before, and in the morning were about to beat another, when the negroes rallied, and a fight ensued. The citizens closed their stores, and a company of soldiers sent in from camp restored order. One soldier was stabbed in the melee, and about a dozen soldiers and blacks badly beaten. It was "dog eat dog."

According to a correspondent, Wendell Phillips firmly believes that impeachment will follow immediately on the reassemblage of Congress, and that President Johnson would not so persistently court such a course if not prepared and determined to resist it. He believes McClellan's reported recall has something to do with it. The late amnesty he considers treasonable, and an effort to build up another rebellion. He favors neither Chase nor Sheridan, but Thad. Stevens for President.

The reports as to cotton prospects are conflicting. A Macon writer estimates as follows: Texas, 270,000; Georgia, 225,000; Alabama, 200,000; Louisiana, 200,000; Mississippi, 225,000; Arkansas, 125,000; Tennessee, 100,000; South Carolina, 150,000; North Carolina, 10,000; other sources, 125,000. Total, 1,630,000. This is thought by some an over estimate. We hope not, as the sooner our people are relieved from debt, the more readily will they prepare themselves for future encounters with the vicissitudes of life.

It is not the intention of the President (says a Washington special to the New Orleans Times of the eleventh instant) to open up or interfere in any way with the question of registration as apprehended by the Radical Republicans. The redress of those who believe their rights are denied is to be found in an appeal to the laws of the land. Nevertheless it is the opinion of the President and his Cabinet, with the exception of General Grant, who has not yet expressed an opinion, that all disabilities were removed by the amnesty proclamation.

It is stated that Charles Sumner has sold his residence on Hancock street, in Boston, intending to make his home the greater portion of the time in Washington." We find the foregoing important announcement in the Cincinnati Gazette. If Radicalism should lose its prestige, Washington would not be so desirable a place of residence to the courtly Charles. He might find a return to his old quarters not at all objectionable. What strikes us, is the coolness of the proposition to reside "the greater portion of the time in Washington." Does that mean that Radicalism contemplates converting Congress into a perpetual oligarchy, or that the "victim" of Preston Brooks' resentment has hopes of the Presidency? "Andy" certainly has no idea of making him premier, and there is quite as broad a field for Sumner's gallantry in Boston as in the United States Capital.

More About the Alabama Claims.

Correspondence Between Seward and Lord Stanley.

The Result of the Maine Election Still Undecided.

Meeting of the Border State Convention

London, Liverpool and Frankfort Markets.

NEW YORK, September 12.—Gold opened at 146, and has since declined to 145⅝.

Cotton dull and nominal. Exchange steady.

Further correspondence relative to the Alabama claims upon Great Britain, made public August 27, 1866, has taken place. Secretary Seward sends to Minister Adams a summary of the claims of the citizens of the United States for damages from privateers fitted out from British ports, and requests that Lord Stanley may be informed that a settlement of these claims has become urgently necessary to the re-establishment of entirely friendly relations between the United States and Great Britain.

The hostile course of the latter country during the rebellion is contrasted with the action of the United States Government toward the Fenian invasion of Canada, in the following words: "Thus we have seen ruinous British warlike expeditions against the United States practically allowed and tolerated by her Majesty's Government, notwithstanding remonstrances, and we have had a similar unlawful attempts in this country against Great Britain disallowed and defeated by the direct and unprompted action of the Government of the United States.

BANGOR, MAINE, September 12.—It is not yet certain that the Radical candidate for Governor is elected. Further returns from the interior counties are required to determine the result.

BALTIMORE, September 12.—The border State convention will assemble here to-day. Delaware, Maryland, Missouri, and probably Kentucky, will be represented. Many delegates have arrived, and the attendance will be large. There will be a Radical mass meeting to-night.

LONDON, September 11, p.m.—Consols closed at 94¼ for money; other securities closed at the following rates: Five-twenty bonds closed at 72¾; Illinois Central, 77; Erie, 74½.

FRANKFORT, September 11, p.m.—United States bonds closed at 76¾ for the issue of 1862.

LIVERPOOL, September 11, p.m.—The cotton market closed heavy and at a decline. The following is the authorized quotations: Middling uplands, 9¾; Orleans, 9¾. Sales 10,000 bales. Breadstuffs quiet and unchanged.

Order Issued by General Canby.

CHARLESTON, September 10.—General Canby has issued the following order:

HEADQUARTERS THIRD MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, September 7, 1867.

General orders No. 95. It being known that many persons subject to parole under the terms of surrender of insurgent arms, have, since the 9th day of April, 1865, voluntarily exended themselves from States lately in rebellion, thereby evading obligations manfully assumed and faithfully observed by all others subject thereto, and have since returned to the United States, it is ordered that all such persons, resident or domiciled, or who may hereafter become residents or domiciled within the limits of the Second Military District be required to give, within thirty days after a receipt of this order at headquarters of the post at the District in which they may be so resident or domiciled, parole prescribed on the 9th day of April, 1865. The parole will be given in duplicate, one to be retained by the person who gives it, the other to be forwarded to district headquarters for record and transmission. The Provost Marshal General of the district is charged with the execution of this order.

FRIDAY, : : : : : : : SEPTEMBER 13, 1867

THE President's late amnesty proclamation, although it falls far short, in many respects, of what we had hoped it would be, has, as might have been expected, raised the fury of that PRAISE GOD BAREBONES set of hypocritical, Puritanical preachers, disappointed old maids and venal politicians, whose doleful howlings are always provoked by everything, either in church or state, not cut and fitted to the measure of their own heartless, narrow minded, bigoted notions. Indeed, by some the Ark of the Testimony is declared to be now in most fearful peril. Even GREELEY, perhaps the most humane and liberal of the whole fanatical crew, says, in a late issue of the Tribune, that "a victorious nation must protect itself, not only against immediate but against prospective danger." He says Congress must provide for the future safety of the nation, "by depriving the unjust aggressors (the rebels) of the means of injuring us." It is evident, therefore, from present expression of Northern Radical sentiment, the next session of Congress will annul the President's proclamation of amnesty and revoke all the special pardons, so far at least as they apply to men who have not recently baptised themselves in the reeking, slimy waters of Radicalism and negro political supremacy in the South. The disciples of "great moral ideas" are hounding on the President's track again. Their faces grow longer and more gloomily serious as they whine out most dolefully and discordantly through their long, ill-shapen noses, pious imprecations of hate toward everything pertaining to the whites of the South. Imagine a long faced, lantern jawed, drawling, Puritanical preacher, the other day, standing in the sacred desk, pretending to preach CHRIST and Him crucified, uttering, with flat nasal discord, the following sentence in allusion to the President's Amnesty proclamation: "But there is danger of guilty timidity,, arising from want of faith in God and in the right, which God will surely frown upon. There is danger that, from selfish desire of gain, and morbid and sickly sentiments of pity for criminals, we should be too ready to yield the cause of justice and righteousness and humanity—too ready to take the Divine prerogative of forgiveness into our own hands, as if we were more merciful than God, and pardon the dreadful offenders whom He, in mercy to posterity, has delivered to us to punish and destroy." Such has become the rotten, cankered condition of the hearts of such men, that, no doubt, they actually believe they are preaching CHRIST and His gospel—his glad tidings—"peace on earth and good will to men." They read the bible, and insolently pretend to be influenced by its teachings and precepts. We have often wondered that the same fate often falls not upon these vipers and hypocrites that befell the impious creature that attempted to seize with sacrilegious hands the incense as it was sprinkled on the altar of the temple by the annointed priest. Do they forget that there was secession and also rebellion once in Israel, and the results that followed? Perhaps we had better refresh some of the memories a little. The appointment of DAVID, King of Israel by Divine authority discarded the dynasty of SAUL. The son and successor of SAUL openly refused to yield his allegiance to the new order of things. A gigantic war followed, which carried into the seething whirlpool of civil strife eleven of the twelve tribes on the one side against one on the other: the tribe of JUDAH being the only one that remained loyal to the house of DAVID. The contest was long, fierce and bloody, and for some time it seemed as if the scepter was about to depart from JUDAH. But Shiloh had not yet come; and fortunately for the trembling cause of DAVID, the son and successor of SAUL grossly mistreated his powerful and influential general, ABNER, which induced the latter to abandon him, and open negotiations with DAVID. ABNER and staff came to DAVID at Hebron, where they were received in a most friendly and conciliatory manner, and entertained most sumptuously. Arrangements were consequently made for DAVID to be King over all Israel—the revolted tribes being received upon terms of the most complete equality, notwithstanding the son of SAUL still endeavored to maintain his authority over them. Unlike the people of the South, ABNER and all who acted with him were guilty of treason, as DAVID's was the legitimate Government to which he had been appointed by GOD himself. Yet, on the first offer of submission by the rebels, an entire amnesty of all political offenses was granted without reservation, and ABNER, and all his officers were treated with the most considerate kindness and sent away in peace. It is true JOAB afterwards murdered ABNER in cold blood before DAVID's intentions could be fully carried out; and to show the king's utter abhorrence of the murderous act, he left as an inheritance to his son SOLOMON, not to allow JOAB's "hoary head go down to the grave in peace." Look again at the profound wisdom and policy of DAVID, when shortly after the death of ABNER the son of SAUL himself was killed by two of his own officers, who carried the severed head of their victim to DAVID, and presenting it, said: "Behold the head of the son of SAUL, thy enemy who sought thy life." Instead of rewarding them, as would probably have been the case in modern times,—as would more than likely have been the result if the head of JEFFERSON DAVIS had been offered at Washington before the surrender—the murderers were ordered to immediate execution. The influence of this magnanimous act was such that soon after "all the tribes of Israel came to DAVID, and he made a league with them in Hebron before the Lord, and they annointed DAVID King over all Israel." After long years of prosperity succeeding the events above related, we find DAVID involved in still greater difficulties in his governmental affairs. ABSALOM, his brilliant, talented, favorite, but ambitious son, impatient to wear the robes of royalty in his father's stead, conceived the idea of taking the reins of government in his own hands by raising the people in rebellion. His great popularity and fascinating manners soon brought to his aid many of the most powerful in the country. So wide spread was the disaffection that DAVID had at one time to abandon his throne and flee from his capital. Good men rallied around the King, however, and, after a severe battle in the wood of Ephraim, the rebel army was completely routed and dispersed, and ABSALOM slain; and DAVID was once more restored to his former power and glory. After the suppression of this last revolt we see the godlike magnanimity of that great and truly good man. One of his officers wished to put a Benjaminite rebel to death because he had, on a former occasion, reviled the King in a grossly insulting manner. DAVID replied, interrogatively: "Shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel?" And then said to the Benjaminite, "thou shalt not die." Complete amnesty of all political offenses was proclaimed, and, so far as the Bible informs us, not one political execution followed, much less the slightest disqualification in any respect. The action of DAVID in both instances shows him to have been a man of rare ability, possessed of a profound knowledge of human nature, and familiar with the secret springs of action which influence and control the minds of men. The late elections in California, Maine and Montana, give us hope that the mass of the Northern people are returning to a sense of reason and justice, and that the President will yet be enabled to give us at least a few of the rights naturally belonging to man under whatever form of government his destinies be cast. He must be sustained at all hazards, as the signs of the times now indicate that he will be.

MESSRS. GALLAWAY, HAMPTON & CO.: Will you please to say in your paper, that having called upon Major HAMPTON, this morning, the differences between us, that had appeared so mysterious and unaccountable, were cleared up? The apparent neglect on my part was through the carelessness or wilfulness of a third party, who failed to deliver a draft entrusted to his care to be paid over, of which, of course, Major HAMPTON could know nothing. The matter has been adjusted, to our mutual satisfaction.

W. T. H. MCEWEN.

MEMPHIS, September 12, 1867.

[The foregoing almost explains itself, but we cheerfully add our own testimony that all the trouble which existed, arose, as we are satisfied, through the non-delivery of a draft sent through the party referred to, intended to cancel the obligation, and which, if it had been received, would have prevented any illfeeling or publication. We take pleasure, after his explanation, in relieving Mr. MCEWEN from any aspersion, which, under a mistaken impression, we were free to apply. He has fully satisfied us, and we believe the satisfaction to be mutual.—EDS. AV.]

A telegram received from Mr. Van Horne General Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph, states that the Cuban cable is now in successful operation. The following rules will have to be observed in sending messages: Messages must be written on blanks furnished for that purpose, in a legible hand. All numbers must be written out, and the use of cipher messages is forbidden. The following is the tariff in gold to Havana: For a message of twenty words, or less, ten dollars; and for each additional word, fifty cents. For all other points in Cuba, an additional charge of seventy-five cents for each message of twenty words; or fraction thereof, twenty-five cents. The date, signature and address will be counted and charged for, as part of the message, as well as the name of the place from which it is sent.

The President has received a letter from New York signed by a large number of colored persons, besides the members of a colored church, asking the appointment of Fred. Douglass, or either of several other negroes named, to succeed General Howard in case the latter shall be removed from the Freedmen's Bureau. No action will be taken in Howard's case for some time probably.

B. H. Hill is writing a series of letters to General Grant, in reply to General Pope, in which he asserts that no respectable white man in the South approves the Military bills as constitutional, right, just or desirable; that the uncandid accept, the candid reject; none approve, all despise.

NEW YORK, September 12.

Cornelius Von Sier, Postmaster at Lisnat, Long Island, has been held for trial on the charge of robbing the mail.

The Post's Washington letter says an officer of General Grant's staff relates a conversation he had with the General a few days ago, wherein the General remarked concerning the talk of making him President, that he would not be President of the United States if the opportunity offered, and that he was no politician and hated politics, and that so far as reputation and honor were concerned, he ought to be satisfied with what he already enjoyed. That holding the office of President would mar his present comfort and drag him into the storms and excitements of politics, and that as General of the army he had all the work he could do, and time enough to enjoy the comforts of his family and home, and that he, as a soldier, had gained friends enough in the country without now seeking a place where he would gain no more, but probably lose those he had gained.

Official returns from 208 cities, towns and plantations give Chamberlain 46,126, and Pillsbury 34,727. The same last year stood, Chamberlain 54,638, Pillsbury 38,938. There are 219 towns yet to be heard from, which last year gave Chamberlain 14,792, and Pillsbury 10,517. The Democrats have carried York, Lincoln, Knox and Aroostook counties by very small majorities, which will give them seven Senators to twenty-four Republicans. The House will be three-fourths Republicans.

Returns from three-fifths of the State give Chamberlain, Radical, 31,822; Pillsbury, Democrat, 24,296. The same towns last year gave Chamberlain 42,852 and Pillsbury 32,852, showing a loss on the Republican majority of last year of 10,264. The Greatest Cough Remedy Ever Discovered.

DR. C. WILLIAMS'

Compound Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry and Wood Naptha,

FOR THE COMPLETE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, and all other Lung Complaints, Tending to Consumption.

READ! READ! READ!

THIS justly celebrated preparation is recommended by some of the most learned and intelligent physicians in the country, and will be found far superior to any remedy for the cure of all diseases of the respiratory organs. All persons who have used it for Asthma, Cough, Spitting of Blood, Hooping Cough, Croup, Influenza, Sore Throat, Pain in the Side and Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the throat and Lungs, attest to its superior efficacy in the most unqualified terms.

BRONCHITIS, a disease which is annually sweeping thousands to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of Consumption, is promptly relieved and cured by it. The principal symptoms of this disease, (Bronchitis) are Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Hoarseness, soreness of the Throat or Lungs, Asthma, Hectic Fever, accompanied with spitting of phlegm or matter, and sometimes blood. It is an inflammation of the membrane which lines the inside of the whole of the wind tubes or air vessels which run through every part of the Lungs. This Pulmonic Balsam immediately suppresses the Cough and Pain, subdues the inflammation and fever, removes the difficulty of breathing, by producing a free and easy expectoration, so that a cure is soon effected. It always cures "ASTHMA." Two or three doses will cure the CROUP or HIVES of children in a few minutes, and it is remarkable how prompt it is in subduing the violence of HOOPING COUGH, and effecting a speedy cure, and many who have been given up by their physicians as incurable in Consumption, have been restored to perfect health by it.

☞ Sold by all Druggists in Memphis and everywhere in the South and West.

WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the 15th of September, but by the first day of that month we will be ready to receive cotton.

The house will be divided into five proof compartments by brick walls, and covered with tin. Those who have paramount claims on us for the last two seasons, and those who may have proposed to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready for the season.

We design establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouse, upon an advanced lot, which will be ready by the 1st of October, or as soon as completed. The planting of our establishment to the river renders the handling of cotton so convenient that we can transfer cotton for shipment by river free of drayage. The advantage of the position we occupy to save drayage on all cotton sent for compressment from other warehouses, while on all cotton in our warehouse for compressment there would be two drayages saved, since it would be as easy for us to transfer it from our shed to the Compress as to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated, and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those pernicious medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been favorably reported on, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'S medicines.

AMBROSE PECIT; A NOVEL, FOR SALE BY BLELOCK & CO.—This excellent story, written by Thomas Dunn English, fully sustains the reputation of its distinguished author. MARTYRS TO CARELESSNESS.—If all the teeth that have been ruined by neglect could be strung together, they would reach thrice round the world. There may have been some excuse for this havoc in days gone by, when there was no absolute safeguard against dental decay in existence, but there is no apology for it now. Fragrant SOZODONT, the world renowned antiseptic dentifrice, as certainly protects the teeth against decay, as oil prevents steel from rusting, or water arrests the progress of fire.

"SURGICAL OPERATION."—Such is the heading of a paragraph that appeared in several of our cotemporaries, in which the successful operation of lithotomy was heralded as something new here. While we are always gratified to be able to report such evidences of skill as that referred to it is but just to say that similar operations have been performed by Dr. Keiler, Feuner, Rodgers and Rice, and perhaps others, and it is well known that no case of the kind has ever been sent away from this city for want of skill or experience in the operators here. It was certainly gratuitous to intimate anything of the kind. The distinguished practitioners of the Watkins Infirmary do not need any such laudation, at the expense of either their own, or the skill of others.

JO. BANFILL & CO.—This extensive establishment, in the Bradley Block, has been recently doing an excellent business. We heard of a single day's sales amounting to $11,000. When it is remembered that this is one of the largest and heaviest importing and rectifying houses in Memphis, this may not appear so extraordinary. The brands of J. Banfill & Co are spread far and wide, and may be seen as far east as Atlanta and just as far west as civilization extends. The liquors so marked are warranted to be all that they are claimed to be; and the best quality, whether foreign or domestic. Mr. Banfill himself gives his personal supervision to the business, and is not only experienced, but indefatigable. The house deals liberally and those who have made their arrangements with it are unwilling to deal elsewhere. Among the retail establishments of the city and steamboats, "Jo" does a "bully" business.

A LEADING COTTON FIRM.—That "honesty is the best policy" is evinced by the success of our large commission merchants, who having taken this for their motto and guide in business matters, steadily adhere to it. There is no city whose business men have a higher reputation for capacity, enterprise and vigor of thought and action in the management of their affairs. One of these firms which is never alluded to but in terms of the highest respect, is that of Toof, Phillips & Co., No. 266 Front row. These gentlemen have long been in the front rank of their profession. They do an unusually large amount of business, and in their circle attention to the interests confided to them by planters and others who know in their reliability lies the grand secret of their success. They have been in the commission business for years, and are perfectly familiar with all its requirements. They have a large and unusually well selected stock of groceries, which country dealers, planters and householders in the city will do well to examine before pledging themselves to purchase elsewhere.

THE GRAVEST MALADIES OF YOUTH AND EARLY MANHOOD.—Howard Association Essays on the physiology of the passions, and the errors, abuses and diseases peculiar to the first age of man, with reports of new methods of treatment employed in this Institution. Sent in sealed letter envelope, free of charge. Address Dr. J. Skillin Houghton, Howard Association, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

AN INFLUENTIAL FIRM.—If Cotton is King, its Prime Ministers are many. Our great cotton factoring and commission merchants will soon find their time becoming more and more precious, as the planters come in with their valuable bales. King Cotton will claim all their spare moments, but our merchants are noted for their devotion to business, and their efforts to promote the mercantile welfare and the honor of Memphis. From the many on most business men we may cite the firm of Lacey & Mcobee, No. 328 Front street, cotton dealers and commission merchants, as worthy of special praise and commendation. They have long controlled a large share of the trade of Memphis. Their influence has been widely felt and is still increasing. In the adjacent country they are well known and greatly esteemed. The belief in their integrity and "go-ahead-ativeness" is strong, and country people feel that Lacey & McObee can be implicitly trusted. This is a lever of strength which the firm knows how to use to the best advantage. They are resolved to make their house the head of the cotton trade in Memphis, and we commend them to the attention of our friends.

CASH BUYERS—Are invited to examine the largest stock of hats and caps in the South, to be sold out cheap for cash. Merchants visiting the city are requested to examine our stock.

Some mackerels slipped into Dr. Chandler's drug store, No. 262 Main street, on Wednesday evening, about ten o'clock, and stole from the 5th forty-five dollars.

The Committee on Lamps and Gas are putting all the street lamps in good condition. Mr. Hoke is distinguishing himself in this way.

It is understood that the five hundred thousand dollars worth of property found unassessed by the Committee of Investigation, is in addition to the large amount discovered by the Tax Collector, and inserted in the supplemental book.

United States Collector Saunders seized yesterday two thousand dollars worth of tobacco. Within a week he has captured between twelve and fifteen thousand dollars worth of tobacco for violation of the revenue regulations.

The sale of the great library of the late S. T. Morgan, Esq., is to take place at the auction store of Pasmore & Co., on the 23th instant. The books are valuable, and in good condition. They are generally standard works. Never before has so excellent a library been offered for sale in this city.

Dr. B. M. Leiby, who went with the alleged yellow fever cases, reports that going up the river our death and four new cases occurred, making thirteen in all. When Dr. Leiby left them all convalescent, Kentucky, they were all doing well. Dr. Leiby, in his prompt attention to those cases, showed moral heroism, as in his treatments he displayed professional ability.

It is reported on good authority that one section of the Radical party contemplates nominating for the Hon. J. A. Hamilton for Mayor. The Legislature will meet in October. Hamilton can serve in it; then come home and at the January election be brought out for the Mayoralty. The tricks of these Radical wirepullers are wonderful.

A. Sneed, Esq., returned from the East yesterday, looking exceedingly well. No one, from his personal appearance, would suppose that he is the oldest dry goods merchant in Memphis. He has purchased on most favorable terms, for cash, a very fine stock of staple and fancy dry goods, and will give entire satisfaction either to country dealers or to city ladies, who want the most recherche articles.

A correspondent says: "Recently the intelligent staffs of our city papers have been favorably exercised in noting the departure and arrival of our distinguished (?) citizens. Therefore feel it my duty to remind them that the early wards of the city should not be neglected, and hence would advise them of the arrival of Mr. Joe Tighe, from St. Louis, on yesterday evening."

Mayor Loftand having personally examined the pavements of the streets in Paducah, which were strongly commended some time ago in the AVALANCHE, he is now very strongly in favor of the adoption here of the same material, and wishes the Board of Aldermen to appoint a committee to visit Paducah and see and report upon it. It costs one-third as much as the Nicholson, is better, and will last ten years longer.

Among the curiosities of our assessments for taxes, the Committee of Investigation have found a piece of property that was last year put down as worth eighty thousand dollars, but on complaint of two big men assessed the same property at forty thousand dollars, but this year it is again put down at three thousand five hundred dollars.

There are about forty thousand dollars of outstanding claims or warrants against the county of Shelby, and fifteen thousand dollars more accruing on contracts. There is every probability that in anticipation of the ensuing election, the expenditures of the County Commissioners will for a while fall short of their usual average. They have only about $175,000 of annual revenue, and at their usual rate of outlay they would go far beyond this.

A correspondent noticing the rumor that Beauregard has gone to Washington to help the claim of Mr. McKinney, says that an army officer called on Beaumont to make inquiries as to Mr. McKinney's loyalty, and was assured that he, Beaumont, always regarded McKinney as very disloyal. The astonishment of the army officer when a short time afterward Beaumont swore in the strongest terms to Mr. McKinney's loyalty, may be imagined.

It is understood that no more collections can be made of the special jail tax assessments, and the amounts received have fallen so short of those anticipated, that the County Commissioners will have to assess another special jail tax. When persons fail to pay county tax assessments and State taxes, the property is sold and the State buying it in holds it until its claims and all accruing expenses are paid, but this is of no advantage to the county, which has simply to levy another tax.

Judge Trigg, of the United States District Court, granted, yesterday, a writ of habeas corpus to bring before him Mr. Milliken, who was recently outrageously kidnapped by the military authorities, then brought back and since kept in close confinement. This will test the right of military commissions, in a State where courts are in full operation, to try and punish offences that are within the jurisdiction of State Courts, and that have once been punished. If Mr. Milliken is discharged, as he will almost certainly be, he should prosecute for heavy damages the military men who trampled on the rights of Tennessee, and wronged him by the treatment he received. If a jury gives swinging damages, these military outrages will not be repeated.

It will gratify the public to know that the difficulties between the City and the Street Railroad Company, in relation to taking up and relaying the track on Main street, are in a fair way of being adjusted in a way to give entire satisfaction to all just minded men. The expense of taking up and relaying the track will be about ten thousand dollars, and the Railroad Company claims that as in laying its track it conformed to the grade given by the city, it should not now be made to pay the expense of adopting its track to a different grade. The city holds a different opinion. The compromise is that the city shall advance $5,000 of the needful expense and the street railroad company the other $5,000, and the courts shall, by and by, determine which is to pay the whole amount or some and to whom the advance made is to be repaid. This compromise was arrived at after a kindly consultation in the Mayor's office yesterday. It will be brought before a called meeting of the Board of Aldermen to-day, and will doubtless meet with its approval. It gives assurance that all parties will favor the speedy paving of Main street.

NEW COTTON COMING IN.—Messrs. West, Taylor & Carothers, cotton factors and commission merchants, 258 Front street, yesterday received a bale of new cotton from Panola county, Mississippi, and sold it for thirty-five cents per pound. This firm has begun its cotton sales early in the season. Its reception of this bale is among the first in the city. They expect to do a good share of business for their friends in Mississippi and other States in this season, and have made every preparation to do it well. They are experienced business men; know what is needed to be done and how to do it, and are gifted with a determination to "do or dare" all men may to promote the growth and prosperity of Memphis. They are public spirited, generous and courteous, but intend on the prosecution of their business interests, desiring to sustain the reputation their house already possesses as one of the staunchest in Memphis or elsewhere in the Southwest.

LAW COURT.—Met on yesterday pursuant to adjournment. The majority of cases set for trial were continued over to next term. The argument in the case of Jack et al vs Porter will be concluded this morning. This interesting case involves the value of a mule and the right and title to the same. The question of belligerent rights, such as the title to captured property, came up for argument, as the unfortunate mule (now deceased) had at one time "aided and assisted the rebellion, and had given comfort to the enemy," by working (unwillingly, no doubt) to an army wagon in the Forrest command.

The cases set for trial to-day are:

570 Jack et al vs Porter.
521 Leonard vs Goyer.
573 South ward, Vance & Co vs Apperson.

There has been quite a fracas going on for some time over the services of jurors in Judge Hunter's court. Hundreds of men were kept for weeks standing about to be put on juries, and if they did not respond when called were subject to fines for contempt, but when it came the time for paying jurors Judge Hunter would only pay for the time actually spent in trying cases. He gave certificates amounting in the aggregate to nine months of men who had been serving the public gratuitously, and passively claimed that they should be paid for their time. Judge Hunter has finally given supplemental certificates, amounting in the aggregate to $700; but in this amendatory list he has only paid those who lost twenty-five days, each dangling about his court. Another bill will have to come in for those who served one, two, five, ten or more days, but fewer than twenty-five. If those who lost twenty-five days deserve pay so do those who lost ten or three. Those who dance must pay the piper. If Judge Hunter wants a ballroom, those who serve in it must be paid.

Messrs. Pitser Miller, J. Rice and Jacob Alexander were sworn in as petit jurors, and Messrs. Cooper, Todd and Simpson excused from the same. P. J. Mulvihill, Esq., was sworn in as an attorney of this court. The master of application for habeas to the case of Milliken, who was arrested by the United States forces at Lagrange, and who is now detained by them, came up before Judge Trigg on yesterday. The writ was granted, and made returnable on Monday next. The question of military trials in Tennessee will be tested by Attorney General Wallace, who is acting as counsel for Milliken. Noah H. Swayne, Esq., Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, is expected in the city to hold the Circuit Court, this being in the circuit allotted to Justice Swayne.

Weather clear and pleasant. The river is receding steadily, with 8½ and a half feet to Cairo. The Ohio is falling, with three and a half on the bars to the lower Ohio. The Arkansas is low and the channel cutting out very slow, with less than thirty inches on the bars. White river is getting down to low water mark, with four feet to Augusta. The St. Francis creek is partially gone dry.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Business on the wharf yesterday was extremely dull, with little movements in freights.

The Belle St. Louis arrived yesterday at noon. She was delayed two nights by fog, and was aground at Phillips' bar a few hours. She left the John Kilgour hard aground laying in the channel at Phillip's bar. She is drawing more water than was on the bars, and will have to lighten over.

The Natoma, Captain N. D. Elliott, leaves this evening at five p.m. for Prine's Point and Mariand. During low water she will make semi-weekly trips between here and Mariand. Mr. Fred Bingham, an efficient and affable young gentleman, presides at the desk.

The J. S. McCune arrived from White river yesterday morning and returned last night for Duvall's Bluff, with quite a slim cargo.

The Princess, bound from St. Louis for Little Rock, was unable to get up the river on account of the low stage of water. She went up White river to Duvall's Bluff and shipped her cargo through by rail. The bulk of her freight was for Little Rock and Pine Bluff.

The Mississippi, from New Orleans for St. Louis, passed up yesterday morning.

Captain John Washington, steamboat agent at Cairo, is very ill and not expected to live.

The magnificent passenger steamer General Quitman, Captain Wm. Richardson, will leave the wharf to-day at five p.m. for New Orleans.

The Des Arc left St. Louis Tuesday evening for Vicksburg, with a fair trip. She will be at the wharf this evening to receive for Vicksburg, and will leave to-morrow at five p.m. She will be the regular Saturday Vicksburg mail packet, in command of the popular Captain John D. Elliott, with Messrs. Bob Miller and Cad Hanks in charge of the office.

Captain A. B. Miller, of the Richmond, broke his leg while working his boat off a sandbar in the upper Mississippi.

The Rowena, Captain John B. Davis, is the regular Saturday White river mail packet. She will be found at the wharf this morning ready to receive. The Commercial and Rowena are the only boats that make close connections with the Little Rock railroad.

The Gleaner, Captain King, is receiving at the wharf for Arkansas river and way points, and leaves on Saturday.

The Adam Jacobs, Captain Crane, leaves to-day at five p.m. for Cairo and St. Louis.

The Champion, Captain Gregg, will be found at the wharf this morning from Cincinnati. She will report on the Cumberland to-morrow at five p.m.

A correspondent correspondent of the Boston Post makes the following statement. It will readily be seen that it was not intended to apply to the Western rivers:

I think there is less traveling crime in America than anywhere else. But the staterooms on our steamboat routes are loosely let; marriage certificates are not asked for at the Captain's office. The chamber maid is generally a stranger in attendance. On some of the boats they say that this mulatto or yaw, blue eyed girl, with golden hair, is let out to nymphs du Sewer—ladies who literally travel on their snaps.

Silverthorn, of the Evansville Journal, has the following basics of an important movement here, in which we have particularly interested:

The Memphis papers are filled with appeals to the merchants of that city to stand by their own boats, to establish a New Orleans and Memphis packet line, and to cut loose from St. Louis and Cincinnati. They claim that Memphis is the head of navigation on the Mississippi and that the vast agricultural products of the mighty Northwest should all be concentrated at Memphis for distribution. It cannot be denied, but—

Yet, but it is, though, and what he says is true to the letter. A packet line from this city to New Orleans would impel Memphis prosperity, while we should not be held down by the overweening arrogance of Louisville and Cincinnati, and even Evansville, with a Silverthorn in her side.

The New York Herald says: "Captain Samuels, President of the New York submarine Wrecking Company, intends raising the steamboat Metropolitan, lately sunk in the Atlantic Basin, by means of compressed air. The Captain is desirous that the public should witness this operation, as he considers it one of the greatest triumphs of the age."

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Wednesday has the following:

Joe and Bill Bonton went to New Orleans with a flatboat of corn. Joe wrote to his father this:

"NU AWORENS, Guse ist.

Dear Dad—Market is dull and corn is to and fifty ded. who."

The annual statement of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce for the year ending August 31, has been printed. It contains some interesting facts and statistics about boats and river navigation, which we give below:

Review.—There has been a marked falling off in the river trade. The total arrivals of steamers for the past year were but 1,263, against 1,458 the previous year. There was an increase in the trade between this place and New Orleans, and Pittsburg, but a large falling off in that with other places, especially St. Louis. The total arrivals from New Orleans were one hundred and thirty-one less than the previous year, one hundred and twenty-seven, against eighty arrivals and one hundred and twenty-six departures the previous year. From September of last year, and up until July, there was a good stage of water in the Ohio river, and, indeed, in all the Western rivers, so that, excepting some interruptions by the ample facilities existed for the navigation of these rivers. The drought has produced a low stage of water during parts of July and all of August, but not long low for light draught boats. Notwithstanding this good navigable stage of all the Western rivers, there has been a decrease in the river trade simply owing to the general dullness and stagnation of business throughout the country, and rates of freight ruled very low. When we say there has been a decrease in the river transportation, we speak of it in the aggregate, as there has been an increase in the New Orleans trade, which was consequent upon the large increase in the shipments of cotton for that, during the entire year.

The Cincinnati Commercial of Wednesday, says:

The Berths, for Arkansas river, was the only departure outside of the daily packets. She has 400 tons in the boat and barge, more than one-half of her cargo being for Arkansas river. Dispatches received from Portsmouth yesterday, report Captain Wm. McClain dangerously ill, and sinking fast. This will be sad news for his many friends.

What they Fought for and What they Have Got.

No braver soldier than General W. W. H. Davis went forth as a volunteer from Pennsylvania. He was one of the very first to take up arms, and the many wounds he received abundantly attest his bravery. In the following article from his paper, the Doylestown (Pennsylvania) Democrat he tells his surviving comrades what they fought for, and shows them what they got. Let every soldier read it:

Never in the world were a people more deceived and swindled than ours in the result of the late unfortunate civil war. We fought for one thing and have got something else. When the war was begun the Government made such solemn assurances that it was only to be waged to restore the Constitution as it was, and preserve the Union of their fathers, which had conferred so many blessings on them and their children, made them willing to risk everything for its preservation. When the cry was raised that the South had unjustly taken up arms to break up the Union and destroy the Constitution, our people, almost to a man, rose up to resist. The occasion struck deep into the great patriotic heart of the North, and the whole country gave up her men and means. The Union and the Constitution were the great battle cry, which resounded from the lakes to the Potomac, and from the St. John's to the Pacific. No one thought or talked of anything else—and the soldiers had no intention of fighting for anything else. For the Union, fathers and mothers gave up their sons, sisters their brothers, and sweet hearts their lovers. They blessed them when they went to the field, and offered them a willing sacrifice on the altar of the country. What else could they have done for a cause so sacred? For the Union men of all degrees submitted to the most onerous taxes and willingly gave of their abundant or scanty store, because they deemed it would advance the great cause and hasten the return of peace, prosperity and a united country. It is useless for us to call the attention of our readers to the sacrifices made by the North. We need only point to the half million of our sons and brothers slain in battle or maimed for life, and the three thousand millions of dollars spent of the wealth of the people, to say nothing of the agony and mourning all over the land. Here is the price we paid for a restored Union. Have we got what we bled and treasured and suffered for? If we have, where is the Union that was to be made whole, and the Constitution that was to be restored? Have we got them? Alas, no! The one is hopelessly shattered, and the other is only known by the few fragments that "stick in the kindness of some Senator." For all the blood and treasure we expended we have only the negro to show. We have got him at an enormous price, to be fed out of the public treasury and voted by the Bureau. He is to be made the ruler of the country, and the war has resulted in establishing eleven negro States in the South. In these States there is not a vestige of republican government left. Military despotism prevails every where, and neither Constitution nor laws protects the people from the tyranny of the despots that rule over them. The country could not have been in a worse condition if the Confederacy had been established. While we fought to make the foundations of constitutional liberty more enduring, we see the edifice pulled down and the corner stones digged up. The negro with the ballot in his hands is the only remedy offered to the American people to cure the serious ills that afflict the body politic. Talk of taxes, and we receive the answer of "universal suffrage." Complain of despotism and we are told "equality before the law," will set all things right. Ask for a restoration of the Union and the Constitution, and we are told to wait until the negro is secured in his rights.

Oh, oppressed, and outraged, and tax-ridden people, how long will you submit to this state of things? Will you always be willing to receive a stone for the bread that belongs to you? When will you demand a fulfillment of the terms of the war bond? If not paid soon let us sue it out in the great tribunal where such claims are adjudicated.

The Alabama Claims.

From the New York Herald, 6th instant.

The Alabama claims have again been forced upon the attention of the public. The British Foreign Office have issued a blue book containing the entire correspondence which has taken place on the subject between the government of Great Britain and the government of the United States. Once the contents of this book are fully known to us, we shall be in a better position to decide upon their merits, and to give an opinion of the statesmanship which has been displayed on either side, in the course of the correspondence. From the latest dispatch in the collection—a dispatch addressed by Lord Stanley, the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to Sir Frederick Bruce, the British Minister at Washington—it appears that Great Britain "is willing to submit the claims of American citizens for damages caused by the Alabama, and all other similar demands on the part of the United States, to a Commission of Arbitration, if the claims of British subjects against the United States for losses suffered during the late war of rebellion are likewise submitted to the decision of the same Commission."

The proposal seems both reasonable and just. We have had years of correspondence, but so far as we can see, the correspondence does not seem to have brought the question very much nearer a practical solution. The correspondence may go on forever with the same result, unless some such proposal as this is agreed to. There is but small likelihood of Great Britain ever consenting to pay the Alabama claims right down at the simple demand of our government. Some neutral party mutually fixed upon by the interested parties must first interfere, and, giving voice to public opinion on the ground of international right, declare that the claims are valid. To many minds on both sides of the Atlantic the case appears simple and easy of solution. The solution, however, is not in every case the same. One class of minds, by an easy process, arrives at one solution; another class of minds, by an equally easy process, arrives at another solution. The solutions may be natural enough to the minds that gave them birth, but they are different, and it is because they are different, and cannot but be different, that we say the intervention of a third and impartial party is necessary. In a matter of this sort it is as absurd as it is undignified for two great nations—nations whom Providence has placed in the van of civilisation—to stand bullying each other like two big but unreasonable schoolboys. If our claims are good, let them be put to the test. We can see no way by which the outstanding questions can be settled but by arbitration. We cannot, therefore, do better than adopt the proposal, and abide by the issue.

MONETARY.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
FRIDAY, September 13.

The money market is unsettled here in consequence of the jump taken at New York, where it went up yesterday to 165, while here it commanded 144@.

Our remarks yesterday will eminently apply to the present situation. The uncertainty of the National Bank system—the toppling condition of those institutions, and the want of confidence in a peaceable solution of our difficulties, all conspire to unsettle the public mind. The fact, too, that large amounts of coin are needed to pay the duties on imports, and to pay the coupons on the gold bearing and nontaxable bonds, the accumulation is directly oppressing the people, must have had much to do with this sudden and unexpected rise in gold. The policy of contraction which has been persistently carried out for some time, at an enormous rate, we cannot perceive as having brought at any nearer specie payment, than if the country had not been strained to meet the demands of revenue. It is estimated that the circulation is being restricted at least $1,000,000 a month.

EXCHANGE—Selling on New York was 1@1¼ and Cincinnati at ¼ premium, and on St. Louis at ¼ premium.

CITY SCRIP—Dull, with little doing in the market. Brokers are buying at 99@99½, and selling at 99@100.

COUNTY WARRANTS—were in air demand; buying at 97@98, and selling at 98@99.

POLICE SCRIP—Buying at 79@, and selling at 80@.

Tennessee money is scarce and inactive. Dealers bid as follows: For Bank of Tennessee, old issue, 95c; Bank of West Tennessee, 90c; Bank of Chattanooga, 10; Bank of Middle Tennessee, 80c; City Bank, 10c; Merchants' Bank, 85c; Northern Bank, 80c; Ocoee Bank, 80; Planters' Bank, 90; Union Bank, 90; Shelbyville Bank, 80; Southern Bank, 80; Traders' Bank, 95; Bank of Knoxville, 25; Commercial Bank, par; Bank of Memphis, par; Bank of the Union, 95c; Buck's Bank, 95c; Fifth and General Insurance Bank, 10; Union Bank certification, 80c; Bank of Commerce, 80c; Bank of Paris, 85c.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
FRIDAY, September 13, 1867.

The weather, during the middle of the day yesterday, was warm and genial, but the morning and evening were cool. An early frost is very strongly anticipated, which would have a disastrous effect on cotton and tobacco, and it is to be hoped it will be postponed for some time.

The cotton crops in Mississippi and Louisiana have been greatly over estimated. In both States the worm has been more damaging than had been supposed. It has recently re-appeared in a very virulent form in the former State, and been very destructive. Bad reports are received from the Sea Island cotton, and the fields of Texas have suffered severely. It can scarcely be that the present crop will come up to last year's crop.

Trade in the general markets yesterday was quiet, with only a small jobbing trade doing. Provisions rule firm with prices tending upwards. The markets are well supplied, but orders are coming in very slow.

COTTON—The market was inactive, with holders offering freely, but for parcels only. The market throughout the day was dull and heavy, with a small list of sales of middling at 23 cents; strict middling at 23½c; low middling at 22½c; good ordinary at 20½c; ordinary at 18½@19c.

The New York Journal of Commerce of Saturday says:

There is quite a large decrease in the receipts of cotton this week from all ports, the total reaching only 9,136 bales, against 15,915 bales last week, 16,161 bales the previous week, and 6,500 bales three weeks since. As the new crop is now beginning to arrive, we may expect soon to see much more than the ports gradually increase. The exports from all ports continue extremely small, the total for the week amounting to only 1,579 bales, against 2,116 bales last week, and 1,902 bales the previous week. For the corresponding week in 1866 the shipment of cotton from all ports amounted to 30,4 6 bales. The total foreign exports from the United States since September 1, now commencing the new year, are 2,250,6 0 bales for the same period last year, and the stock at all the ports reach only 74,460 bales, against 96,179 bales at the same time last year.

SHIPMENTS OF COTTON FROM THE SOUTH.—The Nashville (Tennessee) Press makes the following statements as to shipments of corn northward: "A most noticeable feature in commercial matters here is the present large shipment of corn to the North. The sending of corn to Louisville and Cincinnati is something almost beyond the memory of the oldest inhabitant. The cause is simply that a better price, by some twenty cents, is paid in Cincinnati than in Nashville. Several car loads of corn are now shipped North daily over the Louisville and Nashville railroad.
